Re: The Network Network

Dear Mr. Lane:

Guy Hermann has forwarded to me your letter of December 16, 1997 for response. As you must be aware, The Network Network has utilized the domain name www.tnn.com for approximately a decade. The Network Network has no information concerning any registration as a trademark of the letters "tnn" by CBS, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries, or of any use by CBS, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries of the letters "tnn" as a trademark. Nor does The Network Network have any reason to believe that any use by it of those letters violates any rights of CBS, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries.

We are certainly willing to consider your claims if you will provide us with additional information concerning them. In particular, please provide us with a copy of the trademark registration, information concerning the date on which CBS, Inc. or its subsidiaries began to use "tnn" as a trademark, and any information or authorities which support your claim that The Network Network's utilization of the internet address www.tnn.com infringes upon any rights which CBS, Inc. or its subsidiaries may have in the letters "tnn."

We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
The Law Offices of
